Safety Rules
-Requirement for kids 6-13 years old to take a deep-water test. Can be given to people older than 13 if there is a concern about the person’s swim ability (guard’s discretion). Test only given by down guard when available.
-During open times, adults must be in the water with any children that need lifejackets or puddle jumpers. Kids with lifejackets or puddle jumpers are NOT ALLOWED in the deep end. Children under the age of 10, if they have not passed the deep-water test, an adult must be in the water with them.
